Item #5 – Monthly Police Department Report.

A. Presentation of changes to Ordinance #'s 247-10 and 247-15.

Ordinance 247-15 Suspension or revocation of license. The demerit point system is to improve the regulation of liquor licensing in the City of Mayville. This system encourages good business practices in all licensed premises. Licenses will incur demerit points if there has been a violation related to that license. Licensees will be advised in writing when they have incurred any demerit points. Other communities in our area that have adopted this are Beaver Dam, Waupun, Watertown, Oconomowoc and LeRoy.

Ordinance 247-10. License conditions and restrictions. Sale to intoxicated persons prohibited. No intoxicating liquor or fermented malt beverages shall be sold or dispensed to or procured for a person in an intoxicated condition or a condition such that further consumption thereof is likely to result in an intoxicated condition.

There will be a few changes made and this item will be tabled to next month's public safety committee meeting for more discussion.
