Discuss with Possible Action Ordinance 430-83 L; Signs Not Requiring Permit-Political and Campaign Signs

The Mayor noted that there have been complaints regarding political signs after the election. The attorney reviewed our ordinance and said that it might not be legal. The Chief sent letters to those in town with signs and just asked that they be removed, but it is not enforceable. If citations would be issued, the city would be sued. They discussed how to proceed. No action taken.
